

Oilers Leave Today on Road Trip Upsets Mark Outcome in Major Leagues

LELIVELT'S MEN TO OPEN FIREWORKS WITH SOO FRIDAY

Sixteen Make Trip Which Keeps Team on Road Until May 21

When the north-bound Frisco got under steam late last night, Jack Lelivelt's Braves sounded off on the first long, lonesome jaunt of the season which will carry them around the circuit to mix with every club in the Tierney family, with the exception of the St. Joe club, before they find themselves in McNulty park about the middle of May.

The road and picnic of home and men were known into a smogged day yesterday when Jack's play dropped in and spoiled the Oilers' chances of making the first tour before they left for peace unknown.

When the Oilers complete their eighteenth season trip they will return with the Oilers for a four-game series.
